Run 1931 – Studley and Fake it

Weather – what was it doing, raining or not. Luckily for the duration of the run at least – not. A good crowd set off – ending in the nature trail where we had the pitstop – and I think everyone got there!

Back at the bucket Fake it was selling the food and drinks tickets – was very nice just handing a piece of paper over the bar and getting alcohol back!

Supergrass was showing off her new torch – only £5 you know and in a lovely case..... first attempt didn't work as the batteries were in upside down – anyway she got it to work and very lovely it was too – don't forget to bring your torches now – the bights are drawing in.

Saucy was showing off a very posh water bottle – anyone would think she was a runner.... Talking of posh Beaver was drinking rose wine out of a very smart looking glass

Fake it was getting very confused as she had two bags and did not know what was in which! She told us she was sorting her f'ing life out so watch this space.

Vibrator was seen arriving at the bucket – she had a lift in the car – she lives 2 minutes away from the Rocky – shame on you VB – but she is suffering from her yoga sessions

Prince Albert was heard to say she likes public bars – we have noticed PA!

Food arrived in buckets and was a mixture of all sorts which soon disappeared.

We were then presented with balloons – to make sculptures with – very impressed with Studley's ability to blow up balloons – ANFI had a go with much talk about sucking and blowing and sucking again – not sure what she was talking about.

There were some very good efforts ranging from snakes, flowers, monkeys, dogs, hats and a few unidentified objects! And we won't mention Botox's "pearls of the orient – or love beads"

Supergrass made a leglessaurus out of all the unused balloons – I am sure she took it home.

Some of us had a rain in – Fake it's app told us when it would stop raining and actually it was right!

Duracell was giving out massages – and very good she is at it too....

That's all folks, see you next week
